COMMENTS:

Mr. Juma Johnson requested a reconsideration of the reduced fine. He is a truck driver working away from home and his 16 year daughter handles the mail while he is on the road. He claims his daughter signed for the certified mail. His daughter wrote a letter stating it's her daily responsibility to check the mail, but not to open any of it. She said her dad gets a lot o mail, However, she recalls seeing the notice, but isn't sure when she gave her dad the letter. She asks the Ethics Board not to "be hard" on her dad for her mistake. The reduced fine amount was reverted back to it's original amount.

To Whom This May Concern

I am writing in response to my fine for timely filing. I sincerely apologize 1st & foremost. I am a truck driver working in North Louisiana and Texas. I am rarely home & my 16 year old daughter is handling my mail. I know this isn't the best of situations, but it's all I have @ present time. The 1st notice you sent I received when I appealed the 1st time. I did receive a decision, but was told I could appeal it. I would greatly appreciate reconsideration and I will make sure my business is taken to. Also, can you email correspondence to katrinaboutte@gmail.com.

Thanking you in advance,

Juma Johnson

To whom this may concern

4-13-21

My dad is Juma Johnson. He is a truck driver that works out of town frequently. When he is home he is in and out. It is my responsibility to check the mail which I do everyday. But I do not open them. He receives lots of mail and I do remember this piece of mail but I don't know when I gave it to him. I am sorry for being irresponsible please do not be hard on my dad for my mistake.

Thank you
Najah Johnson
